

I demand a public hearing. Don't rush this through. It is obvious that fewer owners means fewer ideas reaching the American public. Consider the incident in the California desert where the police couldn't get in touch with Clearchannel after they had a toxic spill. I am against relaxing the ownership rules. Please vote it down